TOM M'GRATH WINS AGAIN

NEALON AMONG THOSE HE DEFEATED, BUT RUNS AN ENCOURAGING RACE.

McChesney's Half-Brother Takes a Race-Developments in the Campaign Under the New Betting Law-Colin Said to Have Been Fired.

New York, July 20.—Uncertain though the turf situation remains in its legal respects, racing continues to gain ground locally. Even the improper and unjustifiable arrests and police rowdyism of last Thursday did not appreciably check its present steady return to public favor. Brighton Beach's third week of racing began with 6,000 persons in attendance. The card sent out overnight was an especially good one, but it met the fate of many of its predecessors in the way of depletion by scratches. Its outstanding feature was the appearance of Nealon, the Suburban winner of last year. William Dubois' big horse made his season's debut in a sprint race and ran creditably, though unplaced to a former stable companion, Tom McGrath, in the first race, which was run in very fast time. He stripped big and high in flesh and will require considerable racing before he will be able to cope with the topnotchers over a long distance of ground, his especial forte.

There was a great upset in the race for two-year-rolds that followed. The speed wonder, Waponoca, recently acclaimed one of the fastest youngsters of the season, which figured in a sensational run-up and changed hands last week, failed to show a particle of his hitherto distinguishing trait. Torbellino, A. B. Spreckels' grand stake colt, which, with a shift of jockeys, became the medium of a tremendous plunge, after setting a hot pace, gave way suddenly and unexpectedly to Marcellus, an extreme outsider at 20 to 1, in the last half dozen strides. The next race, won by Arasee, the second victorious choice thus far, took on the aspect of a procession immediately after the start.

Jimmy Lane, over the jumps, scored his third consecutive win, making the third prohibitive odds-on winner of the afternoon.

In the closing race the Newcastle Stable uncovered a probable good one in Wise Mason, a big. good-looking half-brother to McChesney.

President C.-J. Fitzgerald was served with a subpoena this afternoon at the track to appear before the grand jury tomorrow morning.

There we gelded and the latter is in line for an early graduation in the three-year-old maiden races at Brighton Beach.

From a good source comes the information that the firing process has finally been applied to one of Colin's forelegs, the one that has been under suspicion since his race in the Belmont Stakes in May. The same authority says that the unbeaten champion will not make his next public appearance under colors until at the Sheepshead Bay meeting in the Century Stakes, for which he will be specially pointed. Of Celt only the best reports come from Saratoga. He is in steady work again and the cracked heels, which temporarily shelved him at the Sheepshead Bay meeting, have entirely disappeared. Unless Thomas H. Williams, who is in California, acts after reading Saturday's press dispatches in the matter of a match race between Big Chief and Frank Gill for $19,000 a side, the Brighton Beach track will hardly be able to provide race-goers with this star racing attraction during the present meeting. The Jockey Club does not allow match races, but it would be easy to frame conditions for a special event between the two horses named no less interesting to the public than a formal match affair. Trainer H. E. Rowell, who is in charge of Mr. Williams' eastern string, did not take McGinnis' vehement offer seriously enough to communicate its terms to his employer. The owner of Frank Gill is not the man to advance propositions of this sort unless he thinks he has the best of it, and at last accounts McGinnis had no idea of receding from the position he has taken in regard to the respective merits of Frank Gill and Big Chief. The Brighton Beach management will gladly put up a substantial purse with sweepstakes conditions of $10,000 each. Mr. Williams has never been known to side-step a proposition of this kind, and has made and won or lost many famous matches in his time. The majority of experts hereabouts firmly believe that Big Chief can beat Frank Gill at even weights from one stride to four miles.

It has just been learned that Firestone, the other crack three-year-old in the Williams stable, received a contusion on the right hind leg about half way between the hock and the ankle during the running of the Commonwealth Handicap at Sheepshead Bay. The big swelling yielded a considerable discharge of pus during the past two weeks and the injury gave the trainers much concern. Firestone took bis regular exercise without showing a trace of lameness. Still, it has had the effect of retarding his preparation for the Saratoga fixtures to which ne is eligible, and it is possible that he will not be raced until the Sheepshead Bay meeting, where he has many valuable stake engagements.

During the day F. R. Hitchcock nominated a year-ling colt by Ogden—Whyota (dam of Whorler) in the Epsom Derby of 1910.

George Odom has just purchased High Range from J. E. Madden, paying $2,000 for the youngster, which will be shipped down here forthwith for campaigning at Brighton.

Program books have just been issued by clerk of the scales E. C. Smith for the Maryland United Hunts' meeting of four days at Pimlico, commencing August 26 to 29, inclusive. It will be run under both Jockey Club and National Hunt rules, which will enable regular jockeys to participate without breaking the rules governing weights carried on the flat.

Former jockey Eddie Cassin was overcome by the heat at Brighton Beach today.

Oraculum has been retired and will be donated to the Breeding Bureau.

The program books for the coming August meeting of fifteen days at Saratoga were issued this afternoon. An extremely high-class session of racing is assured there. The recently closed events have filled extraordinarily well, considering their reduced value, and if the best of the eligibles go to the post, as they are likely to do, the races will compare very favorably with the same events in recent years.

jury listened to the testimony of Joe Vendig and Orlando Jones, bookmakers, and Jack Adler, former betting ring announcer, while Justice Scudder heard arguments on a motion for a writ of peremptory mandamus compelling Magistrate James Tighe to examine immediately nine men arrested at Sheeps head Bay.

Acting District Attorney Elder appeared for Magistrate Tighe in opposition to the motion when it was called for argument this morning. He explained that he would be elgaged before the grand jury continually and told Justice Scudder that he would be ready to argue it on Wednesday afternoon. The writ was not issued, an adjournment being taken until July 22.

ACTIVITY IN CANADIAN RACING PROJECTS.

Three Tracks Will Probably Minister to the Spor

Across the line in Canada various racing projects are afoot, some commendable, some otherwise. In the province of Quebec there seems to be ground ripe for sowing, and that the sowers are not asleep seems to be attested by the following statement sent to Daily Racing Form from Montreal by one conversant with the situation, in which he says:

"A new race course will be built in Ottawa this summer. It will be modeled on the lines of the Montreal Club and the meetings will be short, not more than ten days. This project is not the result of any turf condition across the border, but is simply the continuance of a well-haid plan for three good tracks in Quebec, of which Blue Bonnets was the first completed. When these tracks have been completed there will be no longer any reason for complaint on the part of owners, who come here and object to a long shipment to a short meeting. The three tracks will provide five weeks of racing, spring and fall, in the province of Quebec, and this is considered much better than giving one long meeting in one place. The third track will be built in Quebec. The very best citizens of Ottawa and Quebec are in these clubs and racing will be conducted on the highest possible plane."

The plan outlined seems to be legitimate and conservative. Ottawa is the capital of the Dominion and a lively, hustling city. It should support a short meeting profitably. The success of racing at Montreal is already established. What Quebec will do remains to be seen. It is old enough, populous enough and rich enough. But the people are peculiar and to succeed there a racing plant must be conducted by those in whom they have confidence.

It is not in the province of Quebec alone that plans looking to an extension of racing are under consideration. A dispatch from London, Ont., says: "London, Ont., July 29. A. H. Brener, a leading horseman, stated that backing is assured for the construction of a mile track for running races ia this city, and expects that it will be ready next year. A party was out viewing prob

SARATOGA'S NEW STAKE NOMINATIONS.

The substituted lower-value stakes of the Saratoga Association, which closed for entries July 13, filled very well with nominations of high-class horses. The entries are not so numerous as they would have been had the date of closing been earlier in the year, but there is little or no dead wood, the nominations being nearly altogether of horses that have been racing well and are fit and ready for action. A welcome feature is the appearance of the Sanford cracks in the lists, the fleet filly, Valls, being an especially important addition to the equine figures that powerfully enchain public interest. As a sample of what the stakes hold out in promise to lovers of racing, the entries to the Saratoga Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, are here published. The race will be run July 30, and the horses engaged are:

VANDERBILT JOCKEY'S SUCCESS IN FRANCE.

Paris, July 20.—Since W. K. Vanderbilt's jockey, Bellhouse, an English rider, left the hospital he has had remarkable success, winning every time he rides. At Le Tremblay on the first day of his return to the turf he won the Prix Haricot and the Prix Calleron with Mr. Vanderbilt's Constant, a gray colt. 2, by Halma—Constanzia, and Tessie, a chestnut filly, 3, by Meddler—Hessie. Some days later he won the Prix du President and the Prix la Sagittaire with Sea Sick II. and Oversight, a bay colt, 2, by Halma—First Sight.

ANOTHER STABLE FOR "SHOW" M'MANUS.

Oraculum has been retired and will be donated to the Breeding Bureau.

The program books for the coming August meeting of fifteen days at Saratoga were issued this afternoon. An extremely high-class session of racing is assured there. The recently closed events have filled extraordinarily well, considering their reduced value, and if the best of the eligibles go to the post, as they are likely to do, the races will compare very favorably with the same events in recent years. Both the grand jury room and special term of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, saw action in the race track betting muddle this morning. The grand

1 to 10 for his wagers. He made combination show wagers both at the tracks and in the pool-rooms and had such remarkable success at one period that he cashed forty-six consecutive bets. He won more than $100,000 playing the races in this manner and then decided to become an owner. He bought a stable in which there was a horse named Lord Marmion, and one day he started the latter at Ingleside. The horse was supposed to have the race at his mercy and was quoted at 1 to 3. In order to make it sure McManus took 1 to 6 a place and wagered thousands of dollars on that proposition. Lord Marmion, however, was nowhere and McManus received such a scorching that he lost no time in selling his horses. He has been playing the races, however, with much success since then and is now getting another stable together. He had Short Cut m a soft spot and while he did not bet at the track to amount to anything, if at all, he is said to have loaded up the poolrooms with a series of heavy commissions.

Short Cut won by a wide margin and McManus told his friends before the race that they could go as far as they liked.

FAVORITES FAIL THEIR BACKERS.

Scattle, Wash., July 20.—It developed upon Arcourt to save the situation for favorite backers after Giovanni Balerio, Phillistina, Netting, Green Scal and The Sultan had gone to defeat one after another in the first five races at The Meadows. Arcourt was equal to the emergency and, running the best race of his career, scored an easy victory. Ida May cut a fraction from the track record for six and a half furlongs in winning her race after being almost overlooked in the betting.

Toupee reversed the outcome of his previous meeting with Giovanni Balerio so easily that the judges decided to indefinitely suspend jockey Archibald, who rode Toupee on both occasions. It was not altogether on Toupee's account that this action was taken, however, the officials having been dissatisfied with several of Archibald's rides during the past week or so, notably that on Nonle Lucille, which mare won by a nose in spite of what appeared to them an indifferent ride on the jockey's part. Other specifications are also held against Archibald.

After Phillistina's improved showing today the judges decreed that jockey Buxton shall contine his riding to the Fleur de Lis Stable, to which he is under contract.

MONTREAL FALL MEETING PLANS.

Montreal, Que., July 20.—The autumn meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club will commence on Saturday, August 29, and continue until September 12, taking in three Saturdays and Labor Day. Nearly all the stabling accommodation has already been reserved and prospects look particularly bright for a good meeting. Not only owners, but racegoers, are expected from New York, for at Blue Bonnets there will be a surcease from the advances of the plain clothes cop and the open method of speculation will be a welcome change from the mental telepathic system now in vogue in gay New York.

The same officials as conducted the suring meet.

York.

The same officials as conducted the spring meeting will have charge of the racing this time. John Boden will be racing secretary; John F. Ryan, general manager; Frank J. Bryan, judge; O. C. Farley, paddock judge, and C. J. Fitzgerald and W. P. Riggs will act as stewards. C. J. Fitzgerald will probably go on the directorate of the club at the annual shareholders' meeting in January.

SANFORD'S RACES AT THE HOME FARM.

The Sanfords held their usual trial races for the entertainment of their employes at Amsterdam on the eve of the departure of the stable for Saratoga and they were largely attended. Danoscara beat Mohawk II. in a race of one mite; Polly Watts defeated Adriuche in a dash of three-quarters; Rock Ore, a two-year-old colt, defeated Guy Fonda, another youngster, in a dash of a half mile; La Tosca III., a two-year-old filly, defeated Louise Belle and Broadalbin; Snow Cliff defeated Cluise Belle and Broadalbin; Snow Cliff defeated Cluise Grast defeated Fultonville; Sir Johnson took the measure of Fort Johnson; Duncraggen beat Hoffman and Cliff Edge and Frances Ray defeated Grasslands and Giffords.

KENTUCKY YEARLINGS SENT TO ENGLAND.

Lexington Ky., July 20.—Three thoroughbred yearlings belonging to Mrs. Ella Offutt Pepper, widow of Col. James Pepper, which are to be sold in England during the Doncaster meeting in September, will be taken to New York tomorrow night by "John F. Offutt. They are: Chestnut colt (full brother to King's Courier), by Kingston—Stylitene, by Stylites; bay colt (half-brother to Roxane), by Resolute II.—Ondina, by Onondaga; bay colt (half brother to Kcntucky Colonel), by Meadowthorpe—Nocturn, by Falsetto. These colts are to leave New York next Saturday on board the steamship Minnehaha.

WINDSOR STABLES BURNED

MANY HORSES ENDANGERED, BUT ALL ARE SAVED WITHOUT SUFFERING INJURY.

Polly Prim Defeats Ellicott and Charlie Gilbert and Makes a New Track Record-Please Adds Another Race to Her Long List.

Detroit, Mich, July 20.—The racing at Windsor came near being terminated a week earlier than the advertised time on account of a fire which swept the northwest corner of the plant about noon today, destroying seven stables in which 204 horses were quartered and but for the timely shifting of the high wind would have devastated the entire racing structures. Luckily the fire occurred at an hour when everybody was around the stables preparing for the work to follow during the afternoon. Immediately on discovery of the flames, which began in the feed store adjacent to the Henry McDaniel stable, the alarm was spread and owners, trainers, jockeys and stable hands, assisted by the earlier visitors to the races, began with a will to save the horses quartered in the barns and succeeded so well that not a single animal was burned or injured, though many narrow escapes for the horses were reported. The flames gained rapid headway and the Windsor fire department fearing they would not be able to successfully cope with the flames, sent an appeal for assistance to the Detroit brigade, which prompty answered, but when engines and men from the proper of the flames of the proper structure of the proper showever, had all their trappings and racin othersphernalia, excepting their horses, burned. The ones to suffer by the fire were owners H. McDaniel, Burlew & O'Neill, M. C. Moore, M. D. Miller, J. H. Madigan, J. W. Pangle, P. M. Civill, J. Dyment, W. Shields, J. C. Ferriss, Jr., M. Nicoll, H. Shannon, H. Flippen and John Marklein.

Most of the horses that had been driven from their shelter were housed in temporary quarters in rude barns at the half-mile track opposite the Windsor course, purchased last Saturday by Messrs. Parmer and Hendrie. During the excitement several of the rescued horses broke from their attendants and for the present their whereabouts are unknown.

An owners' handicap, at one mile, in which three of the best horses on the grounds contested, was the feature race of a fairly well-balanced card that furnished

Mathews, and manager of the may, not me pation in the affair.

Some excitement was created in the betting ring by the capture of an alleged pickpocket by Captain Forsee and Hugh McCafferty of the Pinkerton staff. The man gave his name as Harry Fox. About $200 of the money said to have been stolen was recovered. Jockey C. Koerner left last night for New York, where he will ride, and jockey Delaby departed for Chapter. Joe Hayman and A. Garson were others to leave Joe Hayman and A. Garson were others to leave today for Quebec.

J. B. Campbell, who has been here since the close of Latonia, departed tonight for Buffalo.

Ex-jockey Joe Scherrer was an arrival today from New York. He reports the racing at Brighton Beach healthy despite the annoyance that the management is being put to on account of the recently enacted betting laws.

Latenaesse had to be excused from starting on betting laws.

Lajeunesse had to be excused from starting on account of sickness.

The stables destroyed by today's fire will not be rebuilt until the close of the meeting. It is proposed to erect many new and modern stables on the plot of ground recently acquired by Messrs. Parmer and Hendrie.

OAKLAND RACING BEGINS NOVEMBER 7.

San Francisco, July 18.—Racing will not be stopped at Oakland, according to a statement of Thomas H. Williams, president of the New California Jockey Club. When seen at the Pacific Union Club, Mr. Williams said:
"Our season will begin this year on Saturday, November 7, and will continue as usual throughout the year and for many years to come. We are not going to pull up stakes and go to Reno, but will continue to do business at the old stand. It is our intention to increase the purses this year so as to induce all the best eastern stables to race on this coast.

"No serious opposition at all is anticipated by us. Stories of stopping the racing game have come to me of late, but there is no foundation at all for them."

"WELCHING" OVER NEW YORK BETTING.

New York, July 20.—Many cases of "welching" have been reported within the last week or ten days. It is said that a well-known pugilist owes several layers, while a number of former regulars have quit coming to the track and have also forgotten to settle up outstanding obligations. One bookmaker threw up his hands several days ago and stopped business entirely. He said that when he won wagers from patrons they would not settle, while he was expected to pay out his coin when he lost. Under the existing conditions bookmaking in the strictest sense of the term is a huge 10ke.

THE FAST APPROACHING SARATOGA MEETING.

Racing at Brighton Beach will' continue through Racing at Brighton Beach will continue through the present week and the first three days of next week. Then the scene of operations will be shifted to Saratoga, where, on Thursday afternoon, the Flash Stakes for two-year-olds and the Saratoga Handicap will be run off together with the usual supplement of purses. Presumably the difficulty with which those who wish to speculate on the outcome of the races are confronted at Brighton Beach come of the races are confronted at Brighton Beach will be as evident at Saratoga, although the local authorities may not be so strenuous as those of Brooklyn. As compared with former years, the Saratoga meeting will be less in number of days and the money distributed will not be of so great an aggregate. A number of the stake races have been declared off and stakes of smaller values have been substituted for some. But quite an array of events have been retained at their former values and some clared off and stakes of smaller values have been substituted for some. But quite an array of events have been retained at their former values and some rich events remain to be contested by the best horses of the time. The Flash Stakes is still of the guaranteed value of $6,000. The United Stakes Hotel Stakes for two-year-olds, the Spinaway Stakes for two-year-old fillies, the Alabama Stakes for three-year-olds fillies, the famous Saratoga Special for two-year-olds, the Travers Stakes for three-year-olds, the Grand Union Hotel Stakes for two-year-olds and the Hopeful Stakes for two-year-olds remain of the the Hopeful Stakes for two-year-olds remain of un-diminished values. Except the Hopeful Stakes and the Saratoga Special, all of these events are of the guaranteed value order with heavy entry lists and the fees accruing are sufficient to nearly defray their cost to the Saratoga Association. The Special costs the Association nothing but the $2,500 in gold plate added.

The prospects are that, allowing fully for all drawbacks, the meeting will score a success. The formidable stables of James R. Keene, John E. Madden, Harry P. Whitney and John Sanford have been at the track for some time. Except on the last day of the meeting, there will be no conflict with any metropolitan track. The people who go to Saratoga to attend the races are those to whom the $3 admission is of no consequence. All of the best horses now at Brighton Beach and many of the choicest of the western and Canadian-owned will be track.

The Sanford larges are also.

there to take part in the mimic warfare of the track.

The Sanford itorses are always a new element to be reckoned with at Saratoga. This year those ready at the track number over twenty, of which the majority are two-year-olds. The star of the stable is the very fast filly Valls, which last year started in five races there, won three and was second in the other two. Her winnings were a purse, the Delaware Handicap and the Saranac Handicap. In her defeats she ran second to Ben Ban at three-quarters of a mile in 1:31½ and to Dandelion in the Champlain Handicap at a mile and an eighth in 1:32½. Being now a four-year-old, it is quite likely she will prove fully as good as was Sanford's other noted mare, Molly Brant, a few years back.

The stakes to be decided in the course of the meeting, the order of, their running and their values are:

HARD TRACKS CAUSE UNSOUNDNESS.

Colin at Saratoga and Physically Well, but Legs Under Suspicion.

Though Colin has gone to Saratoga with trainer Rowe and the rest of the Keene cracks, which In-clude Ballot, Celt, Helmet, Melisande and Wedding Bells, it is not certain that the champion will start there or race again. He is doing well, but his fore legs are under suspicion. More horses are permanently injured by putting a weight of 122 to 126 pounds on their backs and racing them at distances above a mile at record speed than are broken down by track conditions, says one of the best veterin arians in America.

arians in America.

Ever since it was reported that Colin had gone amiss there has been any amount of argument over track conditions, weight scale and the like, until that much-abused term, "broken down," goes to everything from a split hoof to heaves, and the track superintendents are coming in for a share of criticism in having the tracks too hard in order to hreak records. Such injuries as come from a hard track are most commonly manifested in a rupture of the suspensory ligament. The ligament being below the knee, controls the action of the foot, and the trouble is manifested in a dropping down of the ankle joint, and the appearance in front of a bowthe trouble is manifested in a dropping down of the ankle joint, and the appearance in front of a bowing out of the leg, from which the term "bowed tendon" is derived. In this condition the horse suffers considerable pain, and racing is out of the question. Because of this trouble Colin's racing days are probably over.

One of the most peculiar features of Colin's injury was that it was received on an apparently absolutely perfect track. Colin is or was one of the Ballot is beyond the age of the dangers to which younger horses are susceptible from hard tracks or overweight. One mistake that is made in America is that of over-racing young horses and they get a ton of weight for early winning before reaching their maturity. That there is a lot of truth in the statement of James R. Keene, to the effect that horses are sacrificed upon hard tracks for speed, is the opinion of Edward Corrigan, master of Hawthorne, and one of the best trainers in the world. While Corrigan was in England several years ago, Richard Fitzgerald, then in charge of the Hawthorne track at Chicago, permitted the course to get very hard. The speed idea was predominant. Mr. Corrigan, however, upon his return, immediately set the deepest cutting harrow at work and the speed limit was reduced.

DISCOVERIES OF SCOUT JOHN S. WALLACE.

No Field for American Racing of Low Class in Mexico, Cuba or Panama.

Lexington, Ky., July 20 .- John S. Wallace, who Lexington, Ky., July 20.—John S. Wallace, Who was identified with one of the half-mile tracks at New Orleans, came to Lexington during the week to dispose of some real estate. "As the representative of some New Orleans people," said he, "I went to Mexico, Cuba and Panama to see if there is in to Mexico, Cuba and Panama to see if there is in those countries an opportunity for racing in a small way. I found there is none. The Mexicans will not welcome American interests in race track ventures. They have ample capital for the operation of such tracks as they need or desire and they are not caring particularly for an invasion of American horsemen. There would probably be no objection to the coming of the leading owners of horses in this country—the wealthy men who race more for pleasure than for profit—but decidedly the Mexicans do not want the one and two-horse fellows who make a business and a living out of it. Just now it is Mexico for Mexico. I got the impression that the majority of the races, particularly all of the good ones except the Derby, will be conditioned for horses either foaled in Mexico or owned by Mexicans. As to the market for good mares, I cannot say. I did not investigate that feature. "From Mexico I went to Cuba. I found that the concession and plant at Havana are available, but the people in control want too much. They asked $50,000 for the concession. That stopped me and I didn't inquire about the price of the plant. It didn't look particularly good to me anyhow.

"From Havana I went to Panama. There I found that there are forty thousand Americans, all just honing for a little racing, but in the next move I found that gambling in any form on the canal zone is prohibited by the government. The strip of land from Panama to Colon under government control is thirteen miles wide and in order to build a race track or to do any betting, it would be necessary to go six and a half miles away from a white man. That put a crimp into the Panama idea. I stayed there just one night, came back to New Orleans, reported nothing doing to the people who had sent me out and then hit the road for home."

EDNA JACKSON RETIRES FROM RACING.

That fast mare Edna Jackson, recently bought for breeding purposes by Mr. Paul Rainey and sent to the Garth farm in Virginia, won $23,430 in her three seasons of racing and is most stoutly bred, her dam. Arnette, being by Midlothian, out of Filena, by Joe Hooker. She did not race this season, but in 1995, as a two-year-old, Edna Jackson, in Newton Bennington's and Senator P. H. McCarren's colors, won four races and nearly $18,000, the richest being the Spinaway Stakes at Saratoga, worth $10,750 that year. She beat Running Water in the race.

CAREER OF A BUSY SELLING PLATER.

Poor old Charlatan, in new hands, and at a long price, ran over a hundred races by his second at Windsor Wednesday. The well-bred old fellow has been a steady money-winner throughout his turf career and sold for a trifle some ten days ago. He has always raced in the west since he began at Hot Springs in the early spring of 1905. ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

C. J. C., Chicago. The time of the race inquired about should have read 1:13.

M. B., Chicago. Time made at one track has little relation to time made at another track, but the characterization of the Seattle track as "slow" July 16 was undoubtedly wrong. It was fast.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Among the plunging brigade at the Butte, Mont., neeting is Steve L'Hommideau.

Matt Winn officiated as a steward in the Brighton Beach stand last Thursday and Friday. Big Chief, though he has had few stake engage-ments, has earned $6,970 in the eight races he has won this year.

Jimmy Owens, the cross-country rider who a couple of seasons back was one of the best, will shortly leave for France. Notter and Dugan left for Saratoga Saturday night. Notter was under suspension and will take a rest with his chum until Saratoga racing begins.

W. J. Young has shipped his horses to Saratoga, where they will be seen under colors. Young has, among others, Moquette, Chulita, Direct, Fair Messenger and Queen's Message.

J. W. Colt bought Waterspeed for one race at Brighton, won with her and returned her to H. K. Vingue. Last Friday he beat her home with Prince of Pilsen. Altogether it was a profitable business from first to last for Mr. Colt—a good judge.

In the program for the rest of the Brighton Beach meeting the average is about $3,200 daily. The chief features are the Breakers Handicap, $1,500 added, one mile and a quarter, to be run next Saturday, and the Crest Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile and a quarter, scheduled for the closing day, a week from Wednesday.

The New Orleans merry-go-around season of open betting closed with an afternoon of Sunday racing Winner—B. g, by Blues—Bunch (trained by A. G. Blakeley).

Went to post at 3:21. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Arasee outbroke, outpaced and outstayed his opposition decisively. George G. Hall was always in nearest and most persistent pursuit. Druid, forward from the start, saved third place in a game closing drive. Crack Shot, sideways at the start and badly messed about at different stages, closed a big gap into a fast going fourth. Castlewood had no chance under a bad ride, was pulling up frequently and finished well. Killiecrankie was dull of speed after her recent long-distance racing. Okenite sulked. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Fins and Needles ran in unexpectedly prominent contention from the start, drew out on the far turn and won off at the end. Zienap made the early running and was excessively urged and whipped to retain her lead and was a game second. Spooner, crowded out frequently and pulled up afferwards and badly messed about, could never get up. Dolly Spanker was a forward contender under a pull for six furlongs and quit very badly. Winning Star was prominent for half the journey.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Comic Opera, hard ridden throughout and forced wide into the stretch, finished gamely and got his head in front in the last seventy yards. Anna Scott, always prominent, stood the final drive gamely and held on long enough to save second place. Green Dale closed a big gap and would have been second in a few more strides. Fernando tired badly after showing much the most early speed. Prince Hohenlohe can do better. Revery quit. The winner was entered for $300; no bid. Overweights—Anna Scott, 2 pounds; Fernando, 2.

ENGLISH BREEDERS SELF-PROTECTIVE

Sportsman Correspondent Speaks for Them Over Matter of a Market for American Yearlings.

London, July 12 .- Allison, in a recent Sportsman puts the English view of a possible American invasion for sales purposes in words as follows:

"I should advise them to refrain from coming here to sell and rather to exert their utmost energies in defeating the machinations of Governor Hughes. No good result can accrue to anybody by flooding the market in this country, and as to bring ing over stables of race horses, I have already explained that it is extremely improbable that Jockey Club stewards will tolerate anything of the sort being done on a large scale, and that they have full power to prevent it by refusing to allow the owners to have their horses trained here. This cannot be too clearly or too soon understood, and no American owner, unless he be of the class of Mr. James R. Keene or Mr. Belmont, should dream of transporting his stable to England without first as certaining from Messrs. Weatherby whether he will be allowed to have his horses trained here. It is suggested they may come to Ireland, and that is quite another proposition, but they will not get fat over racing in Ireland unless on the principle of dog eat The whole of Ireland does not contain so many people as London alone, and most of them are penurious, so that it would be impossible to run really big meetings there on a commercial basis. No, I think our American friends will have to work out their own salvation as against their opponents, who have inherited the tainted blood of the Puritan They must fight for their own and not run away. If they do this resolutely they are sure to win, but if in panic they come rushing over here they will assuredly find that they have dropped the substance for the shadow. I do not pretend to be in the confidence of the Jockey Club stewards, but it is a matter of common sense that no responsible of gentlemen in charge of turf affairs permit this country to be used as a sort of Alsatia by those whose own country has been made, as regards betting, too hot to hold them.'

J. H. (Skeets) Martin has joined the leading division of jockeys in England, the records of which up to and including July 4 are shown in the table be

From a long essay on breeding and that of Signorinetta—winner of the Derby and Oaks—in par-ticular, by her owner, Chevalier Ginistrelli, the

The whole study of horse breeding, and more particularly of the thoroughbred, consists of the dis covering of certain secrets and mysteries in nature. as, for example, to ascertain more or less accurately the degree of love and mutual sympathy that exists both before and after the process of sexual intercourse. How often does a breeder of thoroughbred stock, without giving himself a moment's thought, send his mare to be mated with a stallion which merely figures in the Bruce-Lowe system of classifiand beyond this one fact has no claim to the stallion in sympathy or otherwise? This system of the Bruce-Lowe figures is nothing less than a di rect violation of the boundless laws of sympathy What an outcry there is when a father of a family forces an unwilling marriage on his daughter. What are the results of such a union?

"But for the breeder who really has at heart the improvement of the equine race the matter by no means ends here; he yet has to ascertain the health of the animals he proposes to mate. There is not the shadow of a doubt that in the theory of selection the female is more important than the male. It is sufficient to remember that the stallion has but two important functions to fulfill-the elab oration of the semen and the act of sexual intercourse itself-while the mare has five such duties to perform-germination, fertilization, gestation, the period of giving birth and finally the period of suck ling or rearing of her offspring. Under these circumstances who can deny the overwhelming imporfance of the female over the male? "Long before Signorina ever met Chaleureux I had sought a subscription to Cyllene, but after weeks of weary waiting I realized that I was doomed never to obtain that subscription-with what happy result every one sees, even those who until recently had sed me of having wasted my mare on a mere handicap horse (?). Then it was that I determined eureux, and my opinion of his fitness in every way, and especially as suitable for the mare, was confirmed by the following incident: I had already sent the mare to the horse to be tried, when one day Chaleureux was out for his usual morning's walk, and passing, as was his wont, through the brickfield adjoining my property. All of a sudden he started to neigh as never horse neighed before.

The mare was out in the paddock, and on hearing the voice of her lover immediately answered, and this incident took place every time they met. Now Signorina was not in season, but all this and the proofs of intense love soon caused her to be in that Considering all this as more than sufficient data I persevered, confident from the very first that I was not far wrong, and that the result of such a union would be an exceptional animal for stamina. Signorina was phenomenal for her speed, Chaleureux was the same for stamina and sturdiness and I was more than convinced that by such a rewarded for the fond care I had taken of my well-loved favorite.

"But yet another potent factor in the situation. On the 18th of February, 1890, Signorina became afflicted with liver complaint and was in a high state of fever, and two eminent veterinary sur-H. Leach and the late Professor -Mr. E Pritchard-by their unselfish care saved the mare though traces of the complaint still lingered about her, with the result that when she ran in the Oaks she was eighteen pounds behind her proper form. It was this, then, that made me keep a steady look out for a horse that should combine sturdiness with strength, and Chaleureux was such a one.

"Before I mated Signorina with Best Man and with Chaleureux I summoned Professor Heap (Cantab), the great physiologist, in conjunction with my own veterinary surgeon, Mr. Leach, to examine them. I am of opinion, therefore, that it is high time the English breeders, to whom breeders on the continent owe so much, should return to this system of ex periment, which is a system of sound common sense. and when accompanied by much study and ripe ex perience is the best possible path to success.'

Killyleagh, which has been getting a good many winners the last few years, died in Ireland last Bred by Mr. H. Moore, he was a bay horse foaled in 1893, by Kendal out of Abanico, by Rosi erucian from Mantilla, by King of Trumps.

A remarkable feature in connection with the rac ing on July 7, at the Bibury Club meeting, at Salis was that with the success of Aristocracy George Edwards, the Boveridge trainer, achieved the notable feat of winning four races in one year with four horses out of the same dam, viz., Lady The animals are Aristocracy, Lady Syme Lena. Lowland Lord and Crathorne.

A party of ten came out for the valuable Grand A party of ten came out for the valuable Grand Prix d'Ostende of eleven furlongs last Sunday, July 5, La Nivernais, 3, 8st 1lb, being a hot favorite; but she ran badly in the race, wherein Pillo, 3, 8st 9lb, led until near home, when Magellan, 3, 8st 5lb, joined him and, despite all Maher's efforts, Pillo was beaten a length and a half. Probably Mr. Buchanan's game colt is rather stale, as he has had a lot of hard work this season. The winner bead by lot of hard work this season. The winner, bred by Baron de Schickler, and owned by Mr. T. Thorne, is a bay colt by the highly successful Perth, out of Pietra Mala, by Atlantic from Little Sister, by Her-

CAIRNGORM NEARLY A GREAT RACE HORSE.

One of the veterans of eastern racing which has earned honorable retirement is Cairngorm, now six years old and still showing some of his former great quality. In five seasons on the turf Cairngorm has earned nearly $57,000 and is still an earner, though age has dulled his speed and experience taught him the furtility of steady effort. But in 1905 Cairngorm was nearly a great horse and would probably have been a champion but that Sysonby was out that year and in his dazzling light Cairngorm's doings seemed less brilliant. He was the second three-year-old that season to Mr. Keene's great colt, though they seldom met. But Cairngorm managed to win eight stakes, the Cup Preliminary and the Cup itself at Brighton—beating Caughnawaga in both races—Saratoga Derby, Pocantico Handicap at Belmont, Preakness and Carlton Stakes and Brooklyn Derby at Brooklyn and Bay Ridge at Sheepshead Bay. In his other seasons Cairngorm was but a moderate horse, with moderate engagements. In his five racing seasons Cairngorm won races and money as is shown in the table below:
